Make Space For Living

Team Members: Chenyu Zhu, Yu Tao, Jiayi Xu,

Xiaoran Guo, Xinyu Zuo, Yiou Lu

More Details

Introduction

- 20 to 40 m² has become the mainstream in cities.
- Growth of items VS. Reduction of space.
- Increased pressure and anxiety about storage.

Introduction

- Modular
- Scalable
- DIY-friendly
- Design-oriented

- Restore order
- Regain control
- Belonging to home

1.Simple but not cheap

2.Flexible and Adaptable

3.Emotional value

Values

Easy to use,
Visually lightweight,
Without additional pressure

Modular components are adapted to every neglected corner.

Orderliness brings peace to the soul, making the home a place where the heart can feel secure.

Logo Rationale

- Box + NW: The letters N and W form a box-like monogram that signals modular storage.
- Nest cue: Open-top shape suggests a “place to settle” belongings.
- Structure: Clean geometry implies compartments, order, scalability.
- Emotional intent: Calm · clarity · reassurance.
- Brand promise: Make space for living (utility → lifestyle value).

DO'S

- ✓ Use approved versions
- ✓ Keep clear space
- ✓ Use approved colours
- ✓ Keep proportions

DON'TS

- ✗ Don't rotate
- ✗ Don't add effects
- ✗ Don't change colours
- ✗ Don't place on busy backgrounds

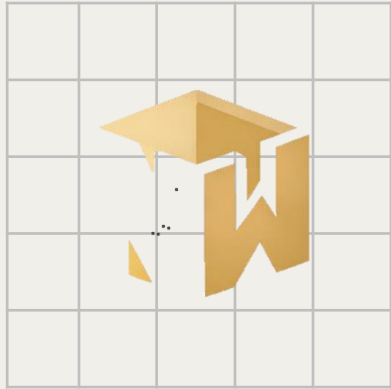

Grand rules: simplicity • versatility • memorability • scalability

(Chen et al., 2025; Zhang et al., 2025)

Logo Usage

Icon-only (Brand Mark)

Role:

Fast recognition at small sizes

Use:

favicon / app icon / social avatar / UI badge / packaging mark

Rules:

Default for tight spaces or $\leq 80\text{px}$ height

Primary

Role:

Full identity + brand promise

Use:

homepage hero / brand story / campaigns / posters / pitch decks

Rules:

Use when space allows full lock-up

Secondary

Role:

Space-efficient storytelling in wide layouts

Use:

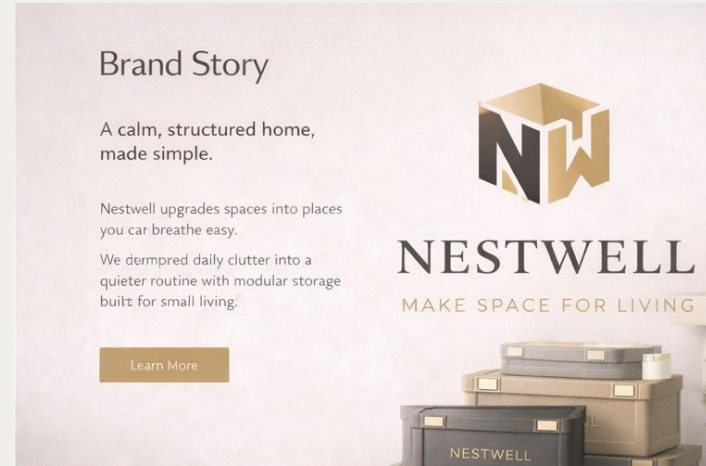

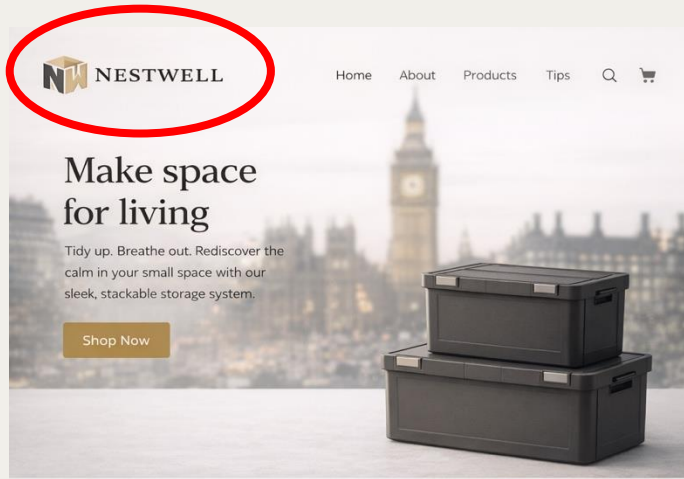

banners / wide social posts / website sections / email hero

Rules:

Switch to icon-only if width becomes too tight
